New Orleans, Sept. 26.—The pestilence seems to have renewed its attack upon soci-ety people this week, and with fatal effect, several members having already died. In all the papers are high eulogies of the hero-ism of the late Dr. Kibbe, and his untimely death is much regretted.

FEARFUL INCIDENTS. A delirious negro patient on Dryades street rushed out of his house and up the street yesterday afternoon, pursued by half a dozen people. He was entirely nude, and when captured he wrestled for a while to get free, then was seized with black vomit and died almost immediately. A young German girl in a house near the place of capture was very low and hearing the tucapture was very low, and hearing the tu-mult, sprang out of bed and died instantly. Sabatoga, Sept. 23.—The Republican State Convention met in the Town Hall, and was called to order at 11 o'clock by Mr. John Smythe, Chairman of the State Committee. Mr. Pierson, of Albany, made a brief speech, saying: "We come here today to subordinate every question to the question as to whether the Nation shall pay its honest debts."

This seemed to strike the key-note of the Convention and Mr. Pierson was applauded. After a few genera! remarks and an appeal for harmony, Mr. Pierson nominated Mr. Roscoe Conkling as the Temporary and Permanent Chairman. The nomination was with a shovel at Ashland, Ky. received with tremendous applause, the whole Convention rising to their feet. Messrs. Pierson and McCarthy conducted the President to the platform.

At the conclusion of a lengthy speech by Mr. Conkling, the Committees on Reso-lution, and Permanent Organization were appointed. Body Snatching. The recent accounts of the finding of the body of J. Scott Harrison in the Ohio Medical College chute by the son, are still vivid in the minds of our people. It now seems that the medical colleges whose sessions have begun, and who are now greatly in want of "stiffs," are seeking to obtain their subjects from the grave yards in and around this neighborhood.

Every one who has heard of Potters Field, where the indigent dead, floaters, etc., are buried, has been under the impression that at least one-half the number f such bodies were not interred there, or taken away by human ghouls after being buried This is now substantiated by a case that octhe Hospital and was sent for interment to Potters' Field. Yesterday the friends of the deceased learned of the disposition of the body and arranged for a transfer of the corpse to Spring Grove Cemetery.

Mr. John B. Habig, the Sixth street undertaker, was intrusted with the work of removing the body, but when he arrived at the place he discovered that he had to deal with an empty coffin. The grave had, from all appearances, not been dug up, as the coffin evidently was in the same condition as on the day when it was deposited in Potter's Field.

> He was talking learnedly about the phar-maceutical profession. An honest husbandman in the next seat couldn't help interrupting him with, "Jes so, jes so, a farm may suit a gal, but the fellows patter for Bosting the fust chance."—[Boston Transcript.

When a board of eminent physicians and chemists announced the discovery that by combining some well known valuable remedies, the most wonderful medicine was produced, which would cure such a wide range of discases that most all other remedies could be dispensed with, many were sceptical; but proof of its merits by actual trial has dispelled all doubt, and to day the discoveries of that great medicine, Hop Bit-ters, are honored and blessed by all as bus-
